

The Red Sea

makes 1 cocktail

- dash orange flower water
- 1 ounce pomegranate molasses
- 2 ounces fresh blood orange juice
- 2 ounces saffron-infused vodka*
- twist of orange peel or thin slice of kumquat

Shake all the ingredients with plenty of ice and serve on the rocks in a clear glass. Garnish with an extra slice of kumquat if desired.

*To infuse vodka, simply add a large pinch of saffron to a bottle of vodka and allow to infuse for several days, or until the saffron has given up all its red color and looks blonde. Strain the bits of saffron out and discard them.
