

Spice Bag (for Apple Chtuney)

from Fergus Henderson

- whole black peppercorns
- whole coriander seeds
- whole white peppercorns
- whole chiles
- allspice
- mace (whole, not powdered)
- bay leaf
- celery seeds
- cloves
- fennel seed
- mustard seed

To avoid crunching on an emotional peppercorn or cautiously extracting a collation of sturdy seeds from your mouth, tie ingredients together in a stockinet bag.

(GFL note: Isn't Fergus adorable? Don't you love the total disregard for quantities or even proportions? And what the hell is a stockinet bag? I just poured a tablespoon or so of each of this stuff into a double layer of cheesecloth and tied it up. Btw, I was out of bay leaves, and that seemed fine.)
